be as widely and generally presented as possible, from the Jewish pulpits and in the Jewish press.

This institution was established ten years ago by the late Dr. Sabato Morais, and its maintenance since then has been amply justified by the splendid results attained.

The seminary is not a local, nor even a sectional institution, but is national in scope and character. Its pupils have come from California, Montreal, Connecticut, New Jersey, as well as from Europe. It should receive the support of the entire Jewish community in America.

The association desires that the Jewish ministers in all parts of the continent should respond to their request and devote the sermon on Sabbath Chanukka to the claims and needs of the seminary; to a tribute to the memory of its lamented leader, founder and president of its faculty, and to an urgent appeal for popular support.

A MORNING BLAZE.

Fire Department Called to Second and Monroe.

The fire department was called to Second and Monroe streets this morning shortly after 8 o'clock to extinguish a blaze in the roof of a two-story frame structure occupied by Lige Reese, colored.

The flames originated from a defective flue and the department encountered considerable difficulty in getting to the scene on account of the sewerage excavations and ditching apparatus.

The roof and a portion of the rear were destroyed before the fire was checked.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY.

A. T. Tatum Stabbed by John Ellis.—Both Well Known
People of Marshall County.

Ellis Claims That He Remember-
Nothing About It.—No Cause Is Known.—Case
Continued.

A cutting affray occurred last night early near Rosenthal's saloon, on lower Court street, in which A.
T. Tatum was stabbed by John W.
Ellis. Both are residents of Marshall county, near Birmingham.

Ellis had been in the saloon attempting to create a disturbance, when Tatum, who was known to be a friend of Rogers, was called in to pacify him and take him outside.

Mr. Culp, of the same neighborhood, was with them, and Ellis, after shaking hands with both, and aserting that they were friends, allowed himself to be led out by Tatum. When nearly outside he made some remark about they "could drive him out, but couldn't run him," he turned and stabbed Tatum with a pocket knife. The wound was in the breast, and penetrated to follow, missing the breast by a few inches.

Chief Singery arrested Ellis on Court street coming towards the city hall. Tatum was taken to the city hall, where he remained all night in the court room on a cot, being attended by Lockup Keeper Keller and James Tatum, a hostler. His wounds are not necessarily fatal.

Ellis was locked up, and in the lockup seems to have found another knife. At any rate, he attacked one of the tramps there and one knocked

VAGRANTS IN HOCK.

Fourteen Tramps Before Judge Sanders.

All Were Dismissed—One Fine Assessed in the Police Court.

Fourteen tramps were before Judge Sanders this morning charged with vagrancy. They were arrested last night by Officers Cross and Johnson near the "Y" around a fire. Some had money and some had none.

Chas. Hepworth, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., had money and a pistol, too, but the pistol was not concealed. He said he had been working at Shelby-ville and was going towards Memphis.

C. Sheppard, of Philadelphia, and a member of an electrician union, said he had looked for work, but failed to find it.

W. Meyers was a chair maker from Monroe county, Illinois.

Jas. Sattermore, a baker who had worked at one or two places here.

Henry and Mike Lan were Scandinavians from Dakota, who made baskets and worked in wire.

Hugh Daughtery was a tramp.

Thos. Monroe, a Missouri miner.
Chas. Williams and John Lyons, laborers.

J. Martin, a laborer of Louisville.
Frank Williams, John Rogers and Bert Dörner, also tramp workmen.
The latter claimed he had worked at one or two places here.

Judge Sanders said it was getting near to Christmas, and while there were probably some rascals in the crowd, most of them looked like honest men. He allowed them all to go.

John Scanlin, of Metropolis, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.
He was found in Mr. John Bogeno's stable last night, but said he remembered nothing about it on account of his condition.
